

RECOUPMENT CORRIDOR APPLICATION FORM

About The Recoupment Corridor

Under the terms of the Screen Ireland Production Loan Agreement entered into between the producer and Screen Ireland and the terms of the Screen Ireland Corridor Agreement entered into between the producer, the Irish writer, the Irish director (as applicable) and Screen Ireland, the producer/writer/director (Corridor Participants) may apply to Screen Ireland to draw monies from the Recoupment Corridor. The Recoupment Corridor may be up to 60% of the amount recouped by Screen Ireland under the Production Loan Agreement excluding any amounts paid to Screen Ireland by way of underspend or in respect of Screen Ireland's share of net profits.

Criteria

To avail of any monies standing to the credit of the Recoupment a Corridor Participant is required to provide Screen Ireland with all details of the proposed use of such monies. which may only be spent on those activities for which Screen Ireland has been State Aid approved i.e. Project Development, Production (Features, TV Drama, Animation and Documentary), Distribution and Training in relation to a qualifying cultural product or service. Each Corridor Participant is entitled to complete and submit an application form and there is no requirement or obligation for Corridor Participants to submit their applications jointly nor is one Corridor Participant entitled to apply on behalf of another Corridor Participant.

Neither the Recoupment Corridor nor monies standing to its credit may be assigned or encumbered or otherwise transferred to any third party and in particular may not be offered by a Corridor Participant to any other financier as a recoupment source or alternative revenue entitlement. Nor may such monies be used to refinance expenditure already incurred by a Corridor Participant or by any person connected with the Corridor Participant.

In making available such monies Screen Ireland shall be entitled to impose such conditions as Screen Ireland may consider appropriate in the circumstances, including reporting obligations on the part of the Corridor Participant and audit and inspection rights in favour of Screen Ireland.
